BALTIMORE GRAIN MARKET.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Quotations furnished by W. B. Hibbe & Co., members of the Chicago Board of Trade, Hibbs Building, 715 Fifteenth street northwest Chicago, May 21 .- May wheat sold into new ritory to-day, though the market was very nervous and uncertain most of the day. The top price was reached in the late trading, when May socore 1.31% and July 1.16%, 16 under the highest just a few minutes before.

The bulge was due to short covering, bull support of, the market, and general buying orders from Europe and other sources. Argentine shipments were larger than expected, and the weather map in this country was very favorable to the new crop, and these facts were the disturbing forces in the Corn opened unchanged at the high level of yes-terday, but in the later trading lost nearly a cent a bushel on lack of support by the longs.
